To Embrace Christ’s Love and Extend It To Each Other

Chinese New Year Celebration – TODAY – Please join us right after church for a pot-luck style luncheon to celebrate.

Ladies – Retreat Opportunity at Capernwray May-June 2019 – Brochures are printed and available in the lobby outlining the program for the two weekend options. Anne in Admin has done a group registration for the early-birds who have indicated they wish to be included for the 2nd week. Late additions may be possible; however, we do not have control of the lodging arrangements. Please notify Anne/Admin if you wish to get on the list asap.

Extend His Love to Our Community and Beyond

Richard & Jocelyn Jelsma – Return from the Rwandan medical mission field to visit with us on Wed. evening February 20th. The Helmes will be hosting a pot-luck style dinner at 6 pm at their home (5410 Leslie Cres. Nanaimo) and the Jelsmas bringing us updated info on their activities. Sign up sheet in the foyer for those who wish to attend.

Coldest Night of the Year – Annual ICCS (Island Crisis Care Society) fund raiser for shelter and assistance to be held Sat. Feb 23rd. Please mark the date on your calendar while we get leadership organized in the next short while. More info will follow soon.

New Small Group Study - Starting on February 24th and running 8 weeks to April 14th, Dan Gignac will be leading “The Ultimate Adventure...A journey through the Bible”. Please Join us after church from 11:45 -1 pm. Child care can be arranged if needed. Please sign up to show your interest. More details to follow as they become available.

Loaves and Fishes – An estimated $5,000+ worth of food is wasted weekly for want of enough sorting volunteers at the warehouse. That is painful to witness, as much of it would have been perfectly fine to give those in need. If you would like to consider volunteering, and helping to stem the flow of waste, please go to Loaves and Fishes website: nanaimoloavesandfishes.org and fill in an online form under the Volunteering Tab. Many thanks!
